v.

Case No. 12-cv-221-PB

Linda Margherita Yaman

O R D E R

Custody of the children shall be returned to the defendant pending a final ruling on the merits or further order of the court. This order is subject to the following conditions:

1. The defendant shall abide by all court orders entered in this case.
2. The defendant shall surrender her passports and her children's passports, and any other travel documents including birth certificates for her children. The defendant shall not attempt to obtain a passport for either herself or her children.
3. The defendant shall not leave the state or allow her children to leave the state without prior court approval.
4. The defendant shall inform the court of her current address and shall notify the court of any change of address in writing at least 24 hours prior to any change in her address.
5. The defendant shall not permit her children to stay overnight at any other address other than the address that is on file with the court.

6. The defendant shall maintain a telephone land line at her place of residence.

7. The defendant shall be supervised by the United States Probation office while this order remains in effect and shall comply with all reasonable directives of a supervising probation officer. The defendant shall report as directed by the probation office.

8. The defendant shall be placed on home detention until further order of the court. She shall maintain a telephone at her place of residence without any special services, modems, answering machines, or cordless telephones for the above period. She shall wear an electronic device and shall observe the rules specified by the Probation Department. She shall pay for the cost of electronic monitoring to the extent she is able as determined by the Probation Officer.

Any failure of the defendant to abide by the terms of this order shall be punishable as a contempt of court.

SO ORDERED.
